Dear Parents and Carers,

We have come to the half way point of the year and are really pleased with how the children are doing. They have been brilliant and deserve this break. We hope you have a great week and we look forward to the second half of the year.

On a different note we were really pleased to have received the below award for the work the Eco Club have been doing.

Children's Achievements:

Aydin started traditional karate almost a year ago at the Farnham Common's Renseikan club. He competed in the England national tournament over the weekend and managed to achieve a silver and bronze medal for his categories. Well done Aydin and keep it up!
